

Program of JRCS Nuclear Disaster Response Basic Training Session for the Fifth Block (FY 2017)

Date and Time: January 24, 2018 (Wednesday) 13:30 – January 25 (Thursday) 12:00

Venue: Lecture hall and meeting rooms, 6F Main Building, Matsue Red Cross Hospital

Day 1	Agenda
13:00	Doors open
13:30 – 13:35 (5 min)	Opening - Opening address [Norio Funo (Secretary General, JRC Shimane Chapter)]
13:35 – 13:50 (15 min)	Lecture 1: JRCS Initiatives against nuclear disaster - Background of the initiatives, principles for relief activities, and the guidelines [Masahito Yamazawa (Director General, Red Cross Nuclear Disaster Resource Center)]
13:50 – 14:45 (55 min)	Lecture 2: Basic knowledge of radiation protection in disaster relief activities [Nobuo Morioka (Director of Radiology Department, Matsue Red Cross Hospital)]
14:45 – 15:15 (30 min)	Lecture 3: Basic framework of the Nuclear Emergency Response Guideline [Takeshi Tanabe (Director of Anesthesia Department and Manager of Intensive Care Unit, Japanese Red Cross Fukui Hospital)]
15:15 – 15:30 (15 min)	Break
15:30 – 16:30 (60 min)	Lecture 4.1: Community disaster preparedness plan of Shimane prefecture [Toru Ito (Office Director, Nuclear Disaster Policy Office, Shimane Prefectural Government)] Lecture 4.2: Large-scale evacuation plan of Shimane prefecture/Initiatives of Matsue Red Cross Hospital [Nobuo Morioka (Director of Radiology Department, Matsue Red Cross Hospital)] Lecture 4.3: Overview of the Shimane Nuclear Power Station [Masao Kuwatani (Chief Manager of Decommissioning & Radiation Safety Control Dept., Shimane Nuclear Power Station)]
16:30 – 17:10 (40 min)	Lecture 5: Relief activities in collaboration with radiation emergency medical care advisors in times of nuclear disaster [Tomoaki Fujisaki (Director of First Internal Medicine Department, Matsuyama Red Cross Hospital)]
17:10 – 18:00 (50 min)	Lecture 6/Hands-on Practice 1: Radiation protective gear - To secure safety in relief activities in times of nuclear disaster - How to use a personal digital dosimeter and put on/remove a radiation protection suit (a demonstration is also given)  [Lecture 6: Yasunori Isoda (Chief Radiologist, Department of Radiology, Matsue Red Cross Hospital)] [Hands-on Practice 1: Kenji Yamane (Manager of CT/MR Examination Section, Hiroshima Red Cross Hospital & Atomic-bomb Survivors Hospital)]

Day 2	Agenda
9:00 – 9:50 (50 min)	Lecture 7: Communication with affected people in times of nuclear disaster/Group work [Chikako Itagaki (Chief Nurse, Domestic Medical Relief Department, Japanese Red Cross Medical Center)] [Keiko Akiyama (Clinical Psychologist, Department of Psychiatry, Japanese Red Cross Medical Center)]
9:50 – 10:50 (60 min)	Scenario Group Work 1 (For physicians, nurses, and administrative staff) - Case Study [Tomoaki Nakamura (Director of Emergency Department and Director of Medical Social Work Department, Japanese Red Cross Nagahama Hospital)]	Hands-on Practice 2 (For radiological technologists) - How to maintain/use a survey meter and a personal dosimeter [Kenji Takamoto (Radiological Technologist, Matsuyama Red Cross Hospital)]
10:50 – 11:05 (15 min)	Break
11:05 – 11:55 (50 min)	Scenario Group Work 2 (For all attendees) - Case Study [Hirofumi Ichikawa (Director of Department of Medical Welfare Work and Community Service Activities, Japanese Red Cross Ishinomaki Hospital)]
11:55 – 12:00 (5 min)	Closing - Wrap-up, administrative matters, and closing remarks

* The agenda is subject to change due to circumstances in the host block or external lecturers' schedules, etc.